Kelly has a wonderful marriage. So why is she so restless? Determined to get that elusive spark back in her life, Kelly takes off to her birthplace of Frankfurt, Germany, for the adventure of a lifetime. There she is befriended by the ever so charming David, who immediately appoints himself as her translator and tour guide. Kelly is so totally in love with her husband, but finds herself wishing he were more like her new friend David. But it isn't long before Kelly realizes that life is not always greener on the other side of the fence. In fact, it can be downright deadly! (Christian Fiction/Romance/Suspense Thriller) Excerpt: There's nothing wrong with a married woman having a friend, or is there? Were you waiting for someone? asked a deep sultry voice. Turning slightly to get a better view in the darkened lights of the club, Kelly found herself looking up into the eyes of a strikingly handsome man. He appeared to be in his mid-thirties. And being that she was in Europe, Kelly could easily imagine that in an earlier time he could have been the model for the statue of David. He was more than chiseled. No, I'm just enjoying the bands, replied Kelly. My name is David, he said extending his hand. David Holloway. Would you mind if I joined you? Not at all, replied Kelly. My name is Kelly Cave. I mean Kelly Brooks. May I refresh your drink? asked David as he settled into the seat besides Kelly at the small table for two. Yes, thank you, said Kelly. I'll have a white...
