Jossey-Bass, 2007. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Elnes has hit one out of the ballpark with this remarkably energetic and accessible narrative presentation of what twenty-first century Christianity looks like in the lives of those who are becoming it right now. This book is an exhilarating gift to all of us."--Phyllis Tickle, complier, The Night Offices "Eric Elnes' book Asphalt Jesus is as exciting as the adventure it describes. He and his fellow walkers went from Phoenix to Washington, D.C., on foot to dramatize the crisis of American Christianity that is lost in the negativity of fundamentalism. Dramatically they hold out another vision that captivates millions. This is a 'must read' if you are concerned with what is happening to Christianity in the United States."--John Shelby Spong, author , Jesus for the Non-Religious "No one will ever be able to accuse Eric Elnes of 'Talkin' the Talk, but not Walkin' the Walk!' This beautifully told story is more than just the diary of a remarkable journey undertaken by an intrepid band of religious progressives. It is an odyssey into the heart and soul of the American religious scene. Readers will think they have made the journey themselves, met a whole new group of friends, and discovered a forgotten landscape and an abiding truth: we are all on the same journey, and we need to listen to, and respect, one another."--Dr. Robin Meyers, UCC minister and professor; author, Why the Christian Right is Wrong : A Minister's Manifesto for Taking Back Your Faith, Your Flag, Your Future.
