Excerpt: .It must be read in connection with the complaint and with the subsequent allegation in the affidavit (fol. 75) in which plaintiff swears that his services were not to be paid for in any other wise than by a share of these profits. Strip the complaint and the affidavit of all conclusions and opinions of the plaintiff, and is there any basis for the claim of $1,000,000, except the alleged affirmative answer which Hoadley gave to the plaintiff s question, Will I make a million dollars out of it? Is there any proof as distinguished from averment that International Power Co. promised $1,000,000? To use the language of Justice Beerman in one of the cases above cited, is this a case in which it may be reasonably inferred that, if the plaintiffs should establish their right to recover, the jury would award them the...
