2009. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 448 pages. English Global Dimensions of Indo-Nepal Political Relations: Post Independence gives an analytical account of India's relations with Nepal in reference to world powers from the days of colonisation to globalisation. It covers a wide array of political aspects including policy formulation, implementation and even analysis of attitude keeping in view the regional and global intricacies of the time. We clearly witness in the book the changing patterns of social systems, its transition and basic change with the ultimate victory of the people who are the real sovereign and spirit of democratic governments. Their interest is uppermost in nation's external policy as we found generally in case of India-Nepal relations. It is hoped that the book would serve a sincere purpose of understanding the behaviour of two strategically important neighbours.
