B E N E F I T S O F S T U D E N T S E R V I C E A N D S E R V I C E - L E A R N I N G Although still in the early stages, studies suggests that schools with well-designed service and service-learning programs can provide a number of benefits for students, teachers, schools, after-school programs, and communities. These benefits, which have emerged from existing studies, deserve to be followed up with more rigorous research. In 2000, the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, a long-time supporter of service-learning, appointed a National Commission on Service-Learning. The Commission, cosponsored by the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy and chaired by former U. S. Senator John Glenn, spent a year studying the state of service-learning CHARACTER EDUCATION in the Nations schools. The Commission consisted of 18 education, government and community leaders. The Commissions findings...
