Bookstore New, 1st Softcover Edition and 1st Printing in Magnificent, Gift Quality condition; 1996 Metropolitan Museum of Art Collectible 1st Softcover printing . Buy from sellers who fully describe their book, including any flaws and avoid undisclosed surprises. Flawless Book is Immaculate and Completely unmarked both Inside and Outside- no ugly red or black remainder stamps or ink slashes on book edge; no bookseller stamps or stickers; no ex-library detritus; no signatures, bookplates ,writing, highlighting or any other markings. Pictorial cover lies flat with no creasing, curling nor shelfwear of any kind .Text block is square and tight. Perfect spine is unbroken, uncreased and binding is very tight, indicating book has been opened barely and certainly is unread. Corners are pointed. Pages are bright, crisp, white and lavishly illustrated with hundreds of full color and B & W plates on virtually every page. There are no creased, soiled, loose, damaged or missing pages. This catalogue to the 1997 landmark exhibition at NY's Museum of Modern Art showcased the breadth and depth of Picassos portraiture and includes 10 articles by leading art historians and critics. Ships promptly, wrapped properly by an experienced collectible book dealer and shipped in special box with protective wrapping. Email confirm with postal tracking information is sent promptly upon shipment. This volume is oversize and quite heavy (over 5 pounds), Therefore it will be necessary to charge domestic standard postage and additional postage for other classes of service.
