This is his first collection. Reviews Si Philbrook holds a rare voice, one that speaks the joy of discovery and the pain of experience with equal wonder. This is poetry of our times. Kiersty Boon, author of The Poet Busker Si Philbrook s poems come with sharpened edges and unadorned utterings. Philbrook s unflinching pen asks us Who will stop this fucking clock. Read it. You will never find a dull moment in this book. Kushal Poddar, author of The Circus Came To My Island Si Philbrook manages to continuously paint pictures without materials and deliver the necessary tucked in between so many lines and stanzas. In short, Ordinary...
