

Midnight in Brussels

By Rebecca Randolph Buckley

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 316 pages. MIDNIGHT IN BRUSSELS is the third novel in Rebecca Buckley's Midnight contemporary romance series. Each novel captures the exotic essence of New Years Eve celebrations in major cities around the world. Each novel introduces a new ensemble of characters whose lives intermingle with that of Rachel O'Neill (the one major character who appears in all twelve novels). Rachel is an American writer living in Cornwall, England. This is the story of Amanda - a naive, inexperienced, young woman - whose husband of seven years disappears on Christmas Day, leaving her penniless in the Nevada desert outside of Las Vegas in a house trailer without a car and no means of support. Amandas married sister comes to the rescue, whisking her away to California to live in a sprawling riverside home in the San Joaquin Valley - a far cry from the meager existence both girls experienced in the Arkansas Ozarks where they were growing up in their grandmothers care. Amanda goes to work as a waitress; her dream is to save her money and go to Bruges, Belgium, where lacemaking, medieval quaintness, and beauty abound. But will she fulfill her dreams of going...
