Excerpt from Melodeon a Collection of Hymns and Tunes, With Original and Selected Music, Adapted to All Occasions of Social Worship A few words to the lovers of Sacred Music will explain why we have attempted the issue of another book of hymns and tunes, when so many are already in the market. And we will say in the outset, that we would not, if we could, deprecate the many excellent works, of this kind, now before the public. But every author has his own idea of what will meet the wants of the people, especially if he has had an opportunity of testing their taste. We think we have had a little experience in this direction in the issue and sale of nearly a hundred thousand copies of Revival Melodies, well distributed in all parts of the country. Some have said to us, give us a good variety of the best old tunes in connection with these melodies, and it will be just the thing for permanent use. This we have attempted, and the public must judge how well we have succeeded. Of course we could not be expected to publish everything for the low price of twenty-five cents per copy; but we have endeavored to make such a selection as will make every page valuable. The new pieces contained in this book, we believe, will be as popular as any we have yet published. Some of the books heretofore published are too large for convenience, and consequently too costly; others are too small to furnish a sufficient variety for permanent use. We have endeavored to keep between these extremes. An experience of over twenty years...
