Edward Blake: Leader of the Liberal Party of Canada on the Irish Question, House of Commons, April 20th, 1882 Mr. Blake. If no other hon. member proposes to address the House on the subject, I do not, for my part, feel disposed to give a silent vote upon it It is now two years ago since, in the course of a very important discussion here, I ventured to suggest in my place in Parliament that the accession to power which had then recently taken place of the Liberal Administration in England, would lead very shortly to the concession of some measure of Home Rule to the Irish people I believed, as I said, that such a solution as could be obtained of the land question, such a solution as had boon from time to time reached of other questions, would, after all, not settle the Irish question, and that unless the dictates of prudence and of justice alike wore observed and fulfilled by the granting of some...
