Not illustrated. 1913 Excerpt: .have caused this present trouble. LETTERS PATENT INSURANCE LITTLE has been heard on this side, since the original announcement, something less than a year ago, of the project to form a company in London for the insurance of letters patent and it is somewhat surprising to learn, therefore, that apparently the business already has become well established. In a review and discussion of the developments, the Insurance Observer of London, says: When about nine months ago the scheme for the insurance of letters patent, designs, trade marks and other monopolies was first mentioned there was undoubtedly a disposition in some quarters to express incredulity, so novel was the idea. Insurance was centuries, not years, old, and nobody before had suggested the possibility of a great departure in this new direction. There is no longer any incredulity, because the Letters Patent Insurance Company, Limited, was not only...
