Excerpt from Tales From the Russian: Of Mme Kabalensky I am still little girl, and really a very happy one. Every one loves me; and as for my dear mama, how tenderly she caresses me, and how pleasant it is for me to sleep on her knees! But I had better begin to tell you what lately happened to me. One evening mama was sitting in the nursery sewing, whilst I was busy drawing, seated on my little chair beside her. That was a very pleasant evening for me, for mama told me a great many pretty stories. We sat long together, and when it grew late I began to feel very sleepy. Then mama put down her work, took me on her knees, and sang my pet song. I enjoyed it very much, my room is so neat and pleasant, mama is so kind and her voice so gentle. I felt so cosy lying in mamas arms listening to her dear singing, and gazing at the large silver image that stands in the corner, lighted up...
